60 MINUTES

- 11/01/98      "Vote Early, Vote Often"- in 1993 President Clinton signed the National Voter Registration Act into law in an effort to encourage people to vote by making registration easier. Problems have arisen because it also made it easier to commit voter fraud. To underscore the problem Paul Miller, publisher of a newspaper in Carmel, California, invented a woman who not only registered to vote but was offered an absentee ballot. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Richard Greenberg)
- "I've Got a Secret"- a report on the popularity of cosmetic surgery in Brazil, whose capital city, Rio De Janeiro, has more plastic surgeons per capita than any city in the world. Includes an interview with Dr. Ivo Pitanguy, who is considered the father of body sculpture. (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin)
- "Justice For Sale?"- a report on the influence of campaign contributions on the election of judges to the Texas Supreme Court. Today the largest contributions come not from lawyers but from businesses, corporate interests and hospitals. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Tom Anderson) (followup to "Justice For Sale?" OAD: 12/06/87)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Moments In Time" - unforgettable pictures
- 11/08/98      "Smoke But No Fire"- for decades, Surgeon Generals have been saying smoking can kill you. The fact that smoking can also cause impotence has been known for years but not made public. Includes interviews with Dr. Cully Carson, Chairman of the Urology Department at the University of North Carolina and Dr. Randolph Smoak, head of the AMA. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert G. Anderson, Lisa Marantos)
- "Botero"- an interview with Colombian artist Fernando Botero who is famous for creating an imaginative world populated by what most would call fat people. (C: Steve Kroft - P: William McClure, Claudia Weinstein)
- "Broken Promises?"- on December 31st of 1999 the U.S. will give over ownership of the Panama Canal to the Panamanians. Critics claim that the U.S. military has wreaked environmental havoc on the country and has reneged on a promise included in the Panama Canal Treaty that all hazardous materials, including unexploded munitions and chemical weapons, would be removed. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Let's Change the Rules" - Andy would like to change the way elections are run

- 11/15/98      "Insanity?"- an interview with Wendell Williamson, a mentally ill student at the University of North Carolina who fatally shot two people. Williamson sued his therapist, claiming that the psychiatrist was responsible for the murders because he let Williamson, a paranoid schizophrenic, believe that he could stop taking his anti-psychotic medication. A jury awarded him $500,000. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky)
"Sister Business"- a report on Roman Catholic nuns, bound by the vow of poverty, who are investing in the stock market. They say their aim is to make companies more socially responsible. Critics, including Father Robert Sirico of the conservative Acton Institute, claim that the nuns are motivated by hostility toward the free market. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jay Kernis)
"Waiving the Rules"- a report on British Prime Minister Tony Blair's efforts to update his country's image with increased tourism in mind and the less-than-enthusiastic reception the 'makeover' has inspired (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Mannerisms" - mannerisms of television news correspondents
- 11/22/98      "Death By Doctor"- an interview with Dr. Jack Kevorkian who, in a move to make himself a test case for legalizing euthanasia, admits that he killed a terminally ill patient himself. Includes a videotape of Dr. Kevorkian administering lethal injections to Tom Youk, who was suffering from Lou Gehrig's disease. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)
"The Defector"- Abbas Al-Janabi, former aide to Saddam Hussein's son, Uday Hussein, claims that UN sanctions have had little effect on the Iraq's ruling family's sophisticated smuggling operation. Al-Janabi, who suffered imprisonment and torture at the hands of his employer, avoided a death sentence by escaping to Europe. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II)
"The Man In The White Suit"- profile of author Tom Wolfe, whose novels include The Right Stuff and Bonfire of the Vanities which were made into hit movies. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner)
Andy Rooney Topic: "We're The Good Guys" - U.S. foreign policy
Update: "Khawar vs. the Globe" OAD: 02/08/98
- 11/29/98      "Y2K"- focuses on the year 2000 when the computers on which so much of our lives now depend could malfunction. Includes interviews with John Koskinen, appointed by President Clinton to manage the Y2K crisis for the Federal Government; Dr. Edward Yardeni, Chief economist at Deutsche Bank Securities; Bill Schoen, a computer programmer and system designer and Michael Dertouzos, head of the Computer Laboratory at MIT. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine)
"Slave Labor"- during World War II, the Nazi's war machine often depended in some part on the work of slave labor: the Poles, Jews, Russians and others forced to work -- and sometimes die -- in German factories. Almost 60 years later, survivors of the experience are suing some of Germany's biggest companies for compensation (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
"The Black Farmer"- black farmers claim that local officials in charge of crucial farm loans from the Department of Agriculture have routinely discriminated against them. Some 600 of these farmers have filed a two and a half billion dollar class action lawsuit against the department. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Amy Cunningham Atkinson)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy's Unanswered Mail" - letters Andy receives
Update: "Death By Doctor" OAD: 11/22/98

48 HOURS

- 11/03/98      Campaign '98- election update from CBS News Headquarters in New York. (C: Dan Rather, Bob Schieffer)
"A Family Accused"- focuses on cases where people accused of sexually abusing children were tried and imprisoned based on little real evidence other than the testimony of young children. Includes: a report on the Amirault family who ran the Fells Acre Day School in Malden, Massachusetts and whose careers and lives were ruined by seemingly unfounded charges; and an update on "Free My Family" (OAD: 04/03/97). (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Gail Zimmerman, Jay Young, Brian O'Keefe)
- 11/05/98      "Samantha's Choice"- Ten-year-old Samantha Frazer was abandoned at the age of five by an alcoholic and drug-dependent mother and has lived more than half her life in foster care. When Samantha's mother, Victoria, successfully underwent treatment for her addiction, a judge ordered that the child be reunited with her. Samantha, who wanted to remain with the family of her former therapist, Bonnie Gladu, went on network television and to the Delaware Supreme Court to plead her case. The Court handed down an unprecedented decision giving Samantha the right to go to family court and ask to live with the family of her choice. After spending two weeks with Victoria, Samantha changed her mind and told the court that she wanted to stay with her biological mother. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Kate Boyle, Mary Sue Holland, Deirdre Cohen)
- 11/12/98      "Quest For Immortality"- focuses on efforts to extend and improve the quality of human life, including reports on: Cenegenics Anti-Aging Center, a Las Vegas-based program relying heavily on hormone therapy; Dr. Rick Weindrunch, a scientist at the University of Wisconsin who has conducted rodent studies showing that a diet restricted in calories radically extended lives; 103-year-old Ben Levinson who has started a career as an actor; advances in the use of cloning as a solution to organ transplantation; the Alcor Life Extension Foundation, a company performing cryonic suspensions; and a commentary by Andy Rooney on how people try to keep their names alive after they die. (C: Harold Dow, Troy Roberts, Peter Van Sant, Susan Spencer, Bill Lagattuta, Andy Rooney - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: David Peterkin, Mary Sue Holland, Phil Eigner, Jennifer Buksbaum, Keith Kulin)
- 11/18/98      "Unspeakable Crime"- ten years ago, James Bernard Campbell entered SueZann Bosler's Miami home, murdered her father and then almost killed her. 48 HOURS follows SueZann as she returns to the crime scene and relives her reactions, and focuses on her crusade for justice, seeking a conviction for Campbell but avoiding the death penalty in deference to her father's beliefs. Includes an interview with David Small, a part-time park ranger from Arkansas who was the victim of a brutal attack which took the life of his partner and a police officer and left him ostensibly dead. His testimony also helped convict the killers but, unlike SueZann Bosler, Small showed relief and satisfaction when his attackers were executed. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Mead Stone) (OAD: 10/02/97)
- 11/19/98      "Cry Rape"- examines charges of rape in Grosse Pointe, Michigan, one of America's most affluent communities, focusing on charges against Dan Granger, high school senior class president, and three of his closest friends. Granger, who claims that the girls involved were not innocent victims, pled guilty to the charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor and was sentenced to four and a half months in prison. The girls maintain that they were unwilling victims. (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Jim Murphy - P: Katie Boyle, Abra Potkin)

11/26/98      "Never Forget"- focuses on crimes that have gone unsolved for a number of years. Now, thanks to new technology and a decrease in the crime rate, police are beginning to come up with answers. Includes reports on: the "tent girl," a young Kentucky woman who was found murdered in 1968; Sid Wells, a young man with close ties to actor Robert Redford's family, who was murdered fifteen years ago; Mark Anthony Daigle, a brutal rapist who was finally tracked down and brought to justice through his DNA profile; and the 1977 killing of Laura Long in Claremore, Oklahoma, where the police have recently reopened the case and are convinced they have found the murderer. (C: Dan Rather, Cynthia Bowers, Erin Moriarty, Susan Spencer - P: Paul LaRosa, Mary Noonan Robichaux, Linda Martin, Katie Boyle, Mary Sue Holland, Jay Pedinoff) (OAD: 04/30/98)
